

End of Year Message from the Head

8th July 2022

Dear Parents,

Thank you to all those parents who have been so generous in sending ‘end of term’ gifts for our staff. I have asked staff not to send individual emails to parents, but rather I will send a general—VERY BIG—and extremely heartfelt “THANK YOU” via this Newsletter. I can see that we will all be enjoying a wonderful variety of chocolates, wine, champagne, specialty biscuits, tea and coffee over the weeks to come. Thank you—it means so much to us that you recognise all the hard work in this way..

Thank you also to all our parents for the wonderful support they have shown, not only to me in my first year, but also to all the teachers, teaching assistants, admin teams and catering staff. As you already know, I really do believe that we have the best staff at The Cavendish School—but we also have the most supportive parents. The Cavendish School would not be the place it is, without all of us making one great big successful team. I truly have had a joyous first year and am not sure how 2022-2023 will top—or even match it!

There have been so many highlights throughout the year, that it is unfair (and unrealistic) of me to try and list them, but the SHINE Assemblies have really stood out for me, not only by the enormously high standards shown by everyone, but because they have been such a great opportunity for us all to see how the girls have grown since September 2021.

We had the School Photograph taken earlier this week and you will see below what a wonderful array of happy smiling faces we have—and that’s just the staff! Details for ordering a copy were sent to parents with the MailOut.

But of course, some of that team will be leaving us at the end of this academic year, to explore pastures anew and I know parents join with me in wishing them all the very best in their futures.

Change is inevitable Growth is optional

And I know The Cavendish School will continue to grow. This will start with welcoming our new girls and new members of staff in September, getting to know them better, helping them to settle in and developing excellent working relationships with them all over the next academic year.

So—have a wonderful summer holiday, filled with laughter, relaxation, restful activities, good books, family time, ice cream and making fabulous memories.

See you on 7th September!

Have a great summer.

Taryn
